

WBG ECN 1st Annual Conference

Foresight Centre, University of Liverpool

11 November 2019

Programme

10:00 → Welcome and introduction

10:30 – 12:00 → Gender Budgeting Experiences in the UK: what devolution made possible

Pannellists:

Angela O’Hagan (Glasgow Caledonian University)

Natasha Davies (Chwarae Teg)

ECN members:

Suzanna Nesom (Cardiff University) - Watching the neighbours: Learning from Scotland and Wales on gender budgeting

Elizabeth Law (Ulster University) - Gender budgeting in Northern Ireland: Unfilled Potential

12:00 – 12:45 → lunch

12:45 – 14:30 → International Experiences of Gender Responsive Budgeting

Pannellists:

Diane Elson (Emeritus Professor University of Essex)

Yamini Mishra (Amnesty International) tbc

Firat Cengiz (University of Liverpool)

ECN members:

Shatakshi Garg (Fifteenth Finance Commission, Government of India) - Gender Budgeting: A Fiscal Tool to Address Gender Inequality and Propel Growth - A Prelude to Policy Making in South East Asian and South Asian countries

Leanne Wilson (Glasgow Caledonian University) - Gender Mainstreaming in Action? A Case of the Scottish Structural Funding Programme 2014-2020

14:30 – 14:50 → coffee break

14:50 – 16:30 → Mainstreaming gender into policymaking: processes and best practices

Panellists:

Kindy Sandhu (Coventry City Council)

Mary-Ann Stephenson (Women’s Budget Group)

ECN members:

Lucy Szablewska (Durham University) – The possibilities and challenges of drawing on qualitative research to inform gender budgeting

Daniella Jenkins (King’s College London and Central St Martin’s) – Constructing gender equality in British pensions policy

Jessica Brown (London School of Economics) – Half the Economy: An Analysis of Public and Private Investments and Female Employment in Egypt

16:30 – 16:45 → coffee break

16:45 – 17:00 → ECN future plans: What would you like us to do next?